

Passionate about the marine environment?

Join us for

Blue Vision Summit 3

A four-day gathering of 500 leaders from the marine community including Dr. Jane Lubchenco, Sylvia Earle, Carl Safina, Admiral Thad Allen (USCG – Ret.), Ralph Nader, Barton Seaver, Wyland, Jim Toomey, Louie Psihoyos, Celine Cousteau and many others!

May 20-23, 2011 • Washington, D.C.

This year's major themes include Restoring the Gulf of Mexico and other endangered waters and seeing the President's new Ocean Policy enacted in areas where people are already working for change and making the links between a healthy ocean and healthy economy.

This an action-oriented summit is aimed at further building the ocean community, influencing policy makers and developing a common plan of action for healthy seas. It will include Capitol Hill Ocean Day on Monday with visits to members of Congress.

Summit sponsors include: Blue Frontier Campaign, The Curtis & Edith Munson Foundation, KBS Living Oceans Foundation, Ocean Champions, Center for Ocean Solutions, NRDC, One World One Ocean Foundation, Gordon & Betty Moore Foundation, Wendy Benchley, National Geographic Society, Code Blue, Herbert W. Hoover Foundation, Blue On Tour, Ocean Conservancy, Henry Foundation, PEW Environment Group, American Littoral Society, Oceana, Clean Ocean Action, EDF, Barefoot Wine, Wyland Foundation, The Ocean Foundation, Ocean Inspiration, Digital Ocean, Boulder Community Foundation, Surfrider - DC Chapter, Care2, IFAW, Shark Research Institute, Danielle Meitiv's Brave Blue Words and Whale Tail Chips, Legal Sea Foods, Whole Foods.

For more information and registration, visit www.bluefront.org.